

Fear is the Beginning of Wisdom!

Psalm 111:10 [Amplified Bible] “The reverent fear and worship of the Lord [Jehovah, the self-existent One or Eternal] is the beginning of wisdom and skill, the preceding and the first essential, the prerequisite of them. A good understanding, wisdom and meaning have all those who do the will of the Lord. Their praise of Him endures for ever.”

Within this one verse in The Christian Bible we find the keys for abundant eternal life.

“Reverent fear” – for us to have reverent fear we have to acknowledge the existence of God, not be blinded by the theories that this society’s “wisdom” may try to teach us.

If we take an unbiased look at the physical world around us we have to admit that it is so interdependent that it could not have come into existence over a long period of time.

This world must have been designed and created at one moment by a Creator, and set in motion and sustained from its time of creation.

“Worship” – as a result of this knowledge we have to acknowledge that this Creator is One who is worthy of our worship.

“The beginning” – such knowledge, admission and worship is only the beginning of a lifetime process of maturing.

“A good understanding” – understanding of what? The full meaning of this word is the total understanding of the purpose of life.

“All who do” – this is not something we just acknowledge in our mind, an intellectual premise, but a complete change in our direction of life.

A change in our priorities in our life.

“Their praise of Him endures for ever” – here we see the great promise of such an acknowledgement and a dramatic change in our lives that it can bring about.

An eternal life in the presence of our Creator and all that such a life will bring to us in joy and satisfaction.

The fear of our Creator God does bring with it all we could ever desire for all time.

Proverbs 1:7 [Amplified Bible] “The reverent and worshipful fear of the Lord is the beginning and the principal and choice part of knowledge, that is, its starting point and its essence; but fools despise skilful and godly wisdom, instruction and discipline.”
